Andrea Jones and her team get a massive Gold Star in managing our Social Channels. Right from the start Andrea studied and mastered the tone of our brand, creating great content and posts that felt like Tonica! After trying several different Social Media companies, Andrea Jones and her team are by far the best we've worked with -which is why we have stuck with them! They are easy to work with, tapped into the online communities we wanted to be connected with, actively interact with users in our product's demographic and respond quickly to comments and questions left on our different Social channels. I love this service and feel very lucky to have found Andrea and her team!
